FROM CAPE SHORE.

Sch. Grayling Has Fine Fare of Mackerel.

Fresh Fish Brought Fine Price of 18 Cents Each.

Sch. Grayling, Capt. Reuben Cameron, of this port arrived at Boston this forenoon from the Cape Shore with a fine fare, 350 barrels of salt mackerel and 10,000 fresh mackerel in count, the latter bringing the fine price of 18 cents each.

The steamer Halifax, due at Boston tomorrow, has on board 940 barrels of fresh mackerel from Port Hawkesbury, C. B.

At Newport, yesterday were the netters Columbia with 600 fresh mackerel, Valkyrie 300 and Olga 400 fresh mackerel.

Sch. Manomet was at New Bedford yesterday with 3000 fresh mackerel.

NOT MACKEREL.

But Sch. Mary E. Harty Has 600 Barrels Weak Fish at New York.

A special from New York this forenoon announces the arrival at Fulton Market of sch. Mary E. Harty, Capt. Eben T. Lewis, of this port, with 600 barrels of weak fish. Capt. Lewis inquired as to the mackerel prospect to the eastward.

Weak fish are most desirable at this season of the year, and will bring a good price, so the Harty will make a good stock on her trip, even if she has not mackerel.

NO MORE TARGET PRACTICE.

Secretary Morton Heeds Complaints of Fishermen.

Orders War Ship Work at Woods Hole Discontinued.

Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, has received orders from Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton to discontinue the use of the waters around Woods Hole and No Man's Land as a place of target practice for the warships in this vicinity.

This order is the result of complaints made by the many fishermen from all over New England, who frequented those waters. They maintained that the use of the big guns killed and drove away the fish.

CAUGHT IN HEAVY GALE.

Halibut Fishing Steamer New England Was Damaged.

The fresh halibut steamer New England, owned by the New England Fish Co., and fishing on the Pacific coast, arrived at Vancouver, B. C., recently with her condenser smashed and otherwise damaged. The steamer was caught in a terrible storm and the damage sustained will amount to $4000.

Big Price For Fresh Mackerel.

The fare of fresh mackerel of the sloop Helena of this port, engaged in netting, which was caught in Boston Bay, was sold to the Gloucester Fresh Fish Company at the splendid price of 23 cents each.

OVER $4,000.

Capt. Lemuel Spinney Makes Big Trip Shacking.

Share of Crew the Largest of the Season.

Sch. American, which Capt. Lemuel Spinney bought recently and took command of and went on a fresh and salt shack trip to Cape North, has certainly made a big start in the hands of this noted fish catcher.

On the first trip under his command, the craft weighed out 101,000 pounds of fresh fish and 66,000 pounds of salt cod, making the big stock of $4121.78, which is the second largest made in that branch of the fishery this season and one of the best ever made in it.

Indeed this stock was but $34 less than the stock of sch. Onato, which was the highest of the season. The share of the crew of sch. American was $120.57, the largest of the season in this branch of the fisheries.

Capt. Spinney has evidently lost none of his skill because of his stay ashore, but steps easily into his old place among the leading skippers of this or any other port.

Good Stock.

Sch. Hattie A. Heckman, Capt. Freeman Decker, stocked $4541.55 on her recent Cape Shore seining trip, the crew sharing $106.79. This is certainly a splendid start for a new skipper and Capt. Decker's many friends hope that he will keep up the record he has commenced so well.

Catching Old England Hake.

Some of the small boats and the traps hereabouts are making good hauls of Old England hake.

BIG STOCKS.

Sch. Bertha and Pearl Nets Over $9000 on Mackerel Trips.

Sch. Bertha and Pearl, Capt. Joseph Smith, stocked $9124.65 as the result of her recent southern and Cape Shore mackerel trips, the crew sharing $223. This is in keeping with the record of this famous skipper for a long number of years and as usual he is near the head of the column, being second only to Capt. Thaddeus Morgan, who at present is high line of the fleet.

Sch. Dictator, Capt. Horace Wildes, stocked $3150 on her recent Cape North shack trip, the crew sharing $72. Capt. Wildes is keeping up the good record which he has made for himself the past two winters.

GOOD BEHAVIOR.

Over 500 American Fishermen at Louisburg and No Disorder.

The Louisburg correspondent of the Sydney Record says: "Large crowds of men from the American fishing vessels were ashore here walking about the town. Considering that there were over 500 men, the fact that there was no sign of drunkenness or disorder among them speaks well for their conduct. American fishermen as a rule are a well conducted class of men."

BIG STEAM BEAM TRAWLER.

Up-to-date Craft To Be Built for Parties on T Wharf.

Expected To Be Ready for Business in November.

An entirely new departure in the New England fisheries is promised in a short time by a number of Boston vessel owners and fish dealers, who have taken stock in a new steamer which is to be built for the fisheries by the Fore River Engine Company of Quincy, and which it is understood will be ready to launch in November. This steamer will at once upon being fitted, engage in the winter market fishery, but in a different line from any ever before attempted on this side of the Atlantic—in a word, the craft will be a steam beam trawler.

This craft, which will be of large size, will be built in the best possible manner and will be equipped for steam beam trawling with all the latest and most modern appliances for that line of the fisheries. The promoters and stockholders in the new craft are confident of the success of the plan, and have certainly gone to a great expense to give their idea a good trial.

The craft will be something after the model of the famous steam beam trawlers of the North Sea, but will be fitted to suit the fishing on this side of the Atlantic and with all the latest up to date improvements. The steamer will be in the hands of a competent skipper and crew, and will be given an earnest trial during the coming winter on the grounds adjacent to New England. The experiment will be eagerly watched by the fishing interest all along the coast.

BIG MACKEREL DAY.

Fifteen Seiners Arrive Home from Cape Shore.

Many of Them Have Largest Fares of the Season.

Since last report 18 sail of the Cape Shore seining fleet have arrived with 4700 barrels of salt mackerel, the largest mackerel receipts of the year thus far. In consequence of the large receipts and the knowledge that there are several large fares to come, the price took a drop Saturday morning, some fares selling at $9.50 per barrel, one at $9 62 1-2 and one is heard of at $9.75.

Several of the fleet had big trips, sch. Ralph L. Hall came down from Boston with 380 barrels salt, sch. Veda M. McKown with 300 barrels, sch. Lucania with 327 barrels, sch. Natalie J. Nelson with 300 barrels, sch. Norumbega with 385 barrels, sch. Claudia with 318 barrels, sch. Priscilla Smith with 425 barrels and sch. Kentucky with 300 barrels.

Sch. Norma, Capt. Benjamin McGray, came in Saturday with the largest salt mackerel fare of the season, 475 barrels, beside a small lot of fresh mackerel. The Norma looked "fishy." All her barrels were full and she had some fish kenched.
